

2011 Family Law Speaker Series

1.0 (FREE) Live CLE Credit Approved For Each Event

Sponsored and Hosted by McKinley Irvin

Time & Location: 12–1 p.m. McKinley Irvin, 425 Pike Street, Suite 500, Seattle
See below for information on how to register!

- FEBRUARY 2     Mortgage Considerations in Family Law
Jeff McGinnis, a mortgage consultant for Wallick & Volk Mortgage Bank, will cover pre- and post- divorce mortgage considerations in today's lending environment.
- MARCH 11     Anticipating Issues and Drafting an Effective Parenting Plan for Your Client
Stephen Gaddis, a private Mediator and Arbitrator, will speak about formulating Parenting Plans and any issues that may arise, including setting expectations, who to involve, what to include and what not to include.
- APRIL 13     An Overview of Business Valuation
Robert Duffy, CPA, ABV, ASA, and CFA, will be speaking on the valuation process and cover a variety of topics including the Standard of Value and its impact on adjustments to the financial statements.
- MAY 12     The Intersection of Dependency and Family Law
Family law attorney, Adam Shapiro, will provide an overview of dependency statutes, case law, and procedures and law. He will also address issues and procedures when family law and dependency cases intersect.
- JUNE 2     Estate Planning For the Unmarried Adult
Wendy Goffe, shareholder with the law firm of Graham & Dunn PC, will discuss issues affecting unmarried couples who have chosen not to marry or cannot marry for legal reasons.
- JULY 13     Immigration Issues and Family Law Litigation
Norma Ureña, a sole practitioner of family law and legal advisor to the Mexican Consul in Seattle, will speak on the effects immigration issues and residency status can have on family law litigation.
- AUGUST 10     The "Nuts And Bolts" of Protection and Restraining Orders
Carrie Williams, attorney with the Northwest Justice Project, will outline the civil violence protection order process from petition to final order.

SEPTEMBER 14

Mediation Tips and Suggestions

McKinley Irvin Partner, Marc T. Christianson, will provide mediation tips and suggestions to improve the process and facilitate settlement.

OCTOBER 5

Mental Illness, Personality Disorders, and Client Management

Dr. Renee Eisenhauer will cover a brief review of some of the major mental illnesses and personality disorders that may be encountered in the course of legal consultation and representation.

NOVEMBER 17

Practice Tips From The Bench

The Honorable Stephen J. Dwyer, Chief Judge of the Washington State Court of Appeals, Division One, will discuss the court's decision-making process and how to best present client's cases before court.

Limited Seating Available

To reserve your seat for an event, please email cle@mckinleyirvin.com.

Please include your name, state bar number, and email address.

Call 206.625.9600 for additional information.